

Fundraising for Yorkshire Cat Rescue

Ideas! Hints! Results!

Ideas:

Put sweets in a jar and charge people to guess how many. The nearest guess wins it

Have a sweepstake - the FA Cup, Wimbledon Final or any other big sporting event

Have a swear box on your desk at work - get your colleagues to contribute too!

Bake loads of yummy cakes and sell them at work, school or college

Have a raffle - ask local businesses to donate prizes

Offer to babysit, cat sit or to walk a neighbour's dog

De-clutter and have a car-boot sale

Hints:

If you're asking for sponsorship source a good prize from a local company and put all the donors in a draw to win it - a great way to increase the number of donations

Ideas:

Have a dress down day at work. Charge £1 to dress down and £2 to those who don't

Have a meal out with a group of chums. Ask everyone who comes to donate a fixed amount

Hold a wine, beer or gin tasting event - your local pub might be willing to help

Let your vocal chords rip and organise a karaoke night

Hold a quiz night at your local pub or village hall

Have a works sports day or fun day

Have a psychic evening

Hints:

Collect Gift Aid if you're getting sponsors - you'll raise an extra 25p for every £1 donated

Ideas:

World Cup challenge - people can predict the number of goals or tries

Challenge yourself to do a Tough Mudder, Iron Man or another extreme sports event

Have a garden party with loads of fun games and stalls

Hold an indoor games evening or race night

Have an auction or a promises auction

Undertake a sponsored event

Have a bring and buy sale

Hold a fashion show

Hints:

Remember to create a page on justgiving.com/yorkshirecatrescue - and share it!

Ideas:

Hold a fete, you'll need lots of friends to help you with this one

Organise a dance, barn dance or fancy dress ball

Undertake a series of challenges

Run a fun sports tournament

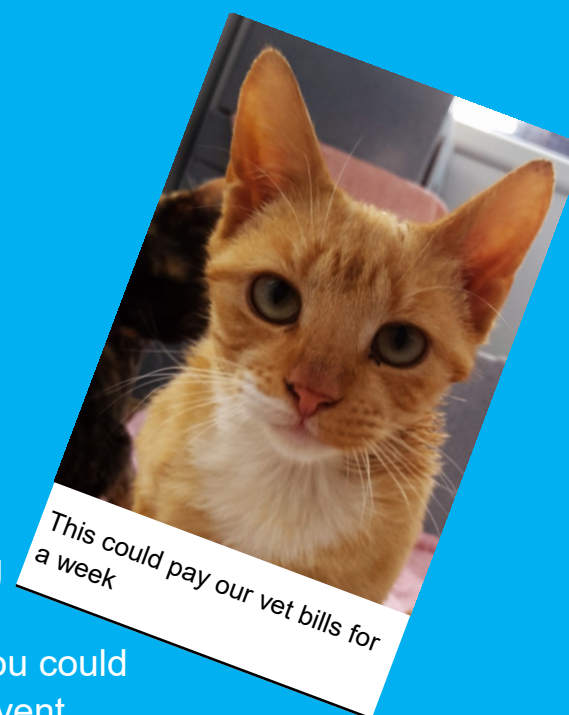

Hold a zip-wire challenge

Run a golf day

Hints:

Make sure you advertise your fundraising online using Facebook, Twitter and other social media platforms.

Share with your friends and ask them to share too. You could also ask your local paper to publicise details of your event

Go for it ... you're a star!
